It was RESOLVED that the bank reconciliation for October be signed by the Chair

F/24/1680 Update from the Town Council's Insurance company regarding Members decision to request an increase of insurance value to £5m for the Town Hall

The Clerk advised that following Members decision to increase the insurance value of the Town Hall; the Insurance company had stated that this would not be possible until a valuation had been undertaken. It was RESOLVED that the quotations to carry out the reinstatement valuation of the Town Hall be added to the Council agenda for the meeting on Tuesday 19 November

F/24/1681 Update on the cloak room toilet off the Anteroom in the Town Hall

The Clerk advised that a de-humidifier had been hired to clear any excess moisture and the 'sump' pump had been replaced to remove the water under the floor.

The Clerk further advised that the roofer was waiting for the scaffolding to arrive before a survey could be carried out.

It was RESOLVED to ask the contractor to perform general roof survey at the same time

F/24/1682 Clerk's Report following the Electrical fixed wired inspection. Members to make a decision based on the report

Members RESOLVED to have the remedial works carried out at a cost of £1,061.00 +VAT

F/24/1683 Cllr Mrs Brown – Members to consider writing to Ashbourne Arts regarding the possible early removal of the 'Our Town' Project in the Historical Centre

Cllr Mrs Brown stated that the 'Our Town' project took up a considerable amount of room in the Historical Centre and asked that a letter be sent asking if it could be removed early.

The Assistant Clerk stated that the agreement relating to the funding Ashbourne Arts received was that the project was on display for three years; she further advised that if the display was removed after the Easter (school) holidays and prior to the May Elections, this would be approximately two months short of the three years.

Members RESOLVED that a letter be sent to Ashbourne Arts asking that the display be removed between Monday 28th April and Saturday 3rd May 2025

F/24/1684 Members to consider and decide on a request for use of the Marion Abbott room at no cost for a workshop and focus group relating to the Cooper's Mill project to be held on Saturday morning(s) in January 2025

It was RESOLVED not to allow the use of the Marion Abbott room at no financial cost
